

SFINKS MIXED celebrates its 40th edition this summer.

between July 23rd and 26th – four days of free and adventurous parties!

Of course, you'll find many well-known artist on the programme: Cheikh Lô, one of Senegal's most famous artists, discovered by Youssou N'Dour; Mahrou Leila, a madly popular indie pop group from Lebanon; Los de Abajo and their revolutionary latin-ska from Mexico; Bunny Wailer, once part of the Wailers together with Bob Marley and Peter Tosh; Bossa Negra, Brazilian samba star Diogo Nogueira's new project, with top talent Hamilton de Holanda on mandolin, and so on...

As always you'll also find many artists from closer to home like Bart Peeters, Slongs Dievanongs, NoMoBs and Jan Leyers, just to name a few.

No Sfinks Mixed without discoveries, such as the exciting kora virtuoso N'Faly Kouyaté or Frederico Ordoñez's passionate flamenco-dance. Expect an idiosyncratic programme with music from all corners of the world.

At Sfinks it's also a party for kids! The smallest get their own festival at the Kidz Village, complete with tailor made menu. There will be cool concerts by Ik en den Theo, Lady Angelina, Radio Oorwoud and the KetnetBand. The cosy baby-bar allows parents to find a peaceful moment, to breastfeed the little ones or change diapers.

And that's not all. On the festival grounds, all day long you will encounter jolly parades and traveling acrobats like the breath-taking Falcons de Barcelona. Furthermore we have a colourful world market with stuff you've never seen before, sustainable projects, and of course plenty of healthy (and some less healthy ;- ) food & drink, prepared as much as possible with local, fresh produce.

See you at Sfinks Mixed!
